Explanation of EMARSP Student Scholarship

What about the scholarship?

Four $750.00 scholarships will be awarded to four deserving students who attend a public high school in Macomb County and who enroll at a Michigan college or university in the fall and complete the first semester. Upon receipt of an official transcript from the college or university, a check will be mailed to the student, payable to him or her.

Who can apply?

Any student attending a Macomb County public high school.

Selection criteria: (listed in order of priority)

1. Financial Need
2. Scholastic performance
3. Extracurricular activities in school and the community
4. Written recommendations from at least 3 persons – two from teachers and one personal.

Procedure for applying:

Completed application forms and recommendations must be received by March 30, 2019, at the following address:

EMARSP Scholarship Committee

c/o Carole Bannister

18877 Highlite Dr. S.
