L'Anse Creuse news briefs

RAY, Mich. – L'Anse Creuse High School-North and Middle School-East cross-country runners will participate in the Old Skool Classic at Wolcott Mill Farm Center Saturday, Sept. 24, beginning with sixth-graders at 8:30 a.m. with a progressive schedule concluding with 12th-grade boys at 11:40 a.m. An awards ceremony is planned for 12:30 p.m.

“It is a fun race where runners have to cross a river that is about 30 feet wide and could be up to 2 feet deep, depending on the rain,” said Jason Hubbard, High School-North coach.

Wolcott Farm is located at 65775 Wolcott Road. For information, contact Hubbard at hubbaja@lc-ps.org.

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – The Mandarin Chinese classes at the Frederick V. Pankow Center are rolling up their sleeves for a Chinese food day in the Creuse Café kitchen Sept. 28 from 8 a.m. – 1 p.m. Guest Chinese cooks from local Chinese restaurants and Creuse Café chef and teacher, Scott Satterly, will guide students in proper cooking techniques.

The Creuse Café is located inside the Pankow Center at 24600 F. V. Pankow Boulevard. For information, contact Mandarin Chinese teacher, Greg Henery, at henergr@lc-ps.org.
