who's car is that out there? asked Paula.
 Well Paula its yours do you like it? asked her mother. Yes!!! said Paula excitedly but, how can I drive it? Well Paula I guess you'll have to get a licence first. So the next morning a breakfast Paula asked her dad when she could get her licence since her birthday was last Saturday & she was 16.
 Well Paula your mother & I decided that the Saturday after you got your car you would start training, said her father. Oh Dad your the greatest!

The Oriente Hawks - Eagle

The Oriente Hawks-Eagle is a member of the worldwide group of birds of prey. Hawks and Eagles has been forever hated but the Bald Eagles our own National sybol belongs to this group.

The Hawk-Eagle has short wings and broad tail feathers. He feeds mostly on lizards and other small animals. He is found in Southern Mexico and South America. He can be found in a hland region. He waits in a high tree tops and looks for any moves in the jungle.

Mammals Wings

Once there was a beggar boy who stole the king's sacred larap of wings. The name of the beggar was Mammals, who was really a prince. But when he was a baby his uncle had assassin the king, and hired a hunchman to assassin the baby. But when the the uncle left the house the hunchman hid the baby and then named him Mammals. The next morning after he was hiding in a boat it was shipwrecked and Mammals was the only survivor. So by accident he rubbed the larap and a genie popped out. The genie said your wish is my command. You have three wishes. Mammals thought and thought and finally said I wish to have a pair of wings that I can put on and ~~take~~ take of anytime I want. When he got his wings he climbed to the top of a nearby mountain and jump! By Keny Moser you will find out what happens in our next
