L’Anse Creuse Public Schools News Briefs

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – L’Anse Creuse Public Schools is hosting a Board of Education Candidate Forum on October 18 at 7:00 p.m. at the Harry L. Wheeler Community Center and Administrative Offices. There are a total of three seats available: two are full six-year terms, and one is a partial term expiring December 31, 2020. The three candidates running for the six-year terms are Nécole Cichowlas, Hilary Dubay and Amy Servial. The two candidates running for the partial term are Adam Lipski and Jeffrey Pegg.

The Candidate Forum will be open to the public, giving district patrons the opportunity to ask questions and learn more about the candidates. Representatives from the League of Women Voters, a nonpartisan political organization, will facilitate the event.

The Harry L. Wheeler Community Center and Administrative Offices is located at 24076 F.V. Pankow Blvd. For more information, contact Director for Public and Community Relations Kelly Allen at allenke@lc-ps.org.

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – The L’Anse Creuse Community Action Coalition will hold a special screening of the documentary “Angst: Raising Awareness Around Anxiety” on November 7 at 7:00 p.m. at the Harry L. Wheeler Community Center and Administrative Offices to open up a dialogue between local families, community leaders and experts. The event will feature a viewing of the 43-minute film, followed by an informative panel discussion led by Coalition students.

Anxiety disorders are the most common mental health challenge in the U.S., impacting 54 percent of females and 46 percent of males, according to the World Health Organization. While anxiety disorders are highly treatable, only one-third of those suffering receive treatment. Everyone involved in the development of “Angst” has a personal experience with anxiety – from the producers to the interviewees.
